DINGHY CRUISE/MILWAUKEE RIVER
PUB CRAWL
SATURDAY, JULY 27th

Twenty MBC boaters braved the frigid July weather (tied the record for coldest July 27th). The Halsteads were the bravest, the only ones to arrive by dinghy. The rest traveled via the pontoons of the Dorners and Schmidts.

After launching at the docks of Discovery World, the fleet departed for up-river stops of The Sail Loft and Port of Call. Along the way we were treated to a parade of large yachts from McKinley and Milwaukee Yacht Club participating in the Yacht Blast for Kids to host trips for the Make-A-Wish Foundation.

The cruise continued through Condo Corridor and up to North Avenue. Heading back down river we stopped at Pere Marquette Park for the evening cocktail hour. We encountered a group of ladies on a scavenger hunt seeking a picture with a couple that has been together more than 50 years. Gloria and Bernie Larsen, married for 60 years, were able to help them out.

Next, we traveled to Riverfront Pizzeria Bar and Grill for dinner. Our numbers increased to 24, and we had our own private dining room.

Despite the chilly weather, a good time was had by all.
