COMMODORE'S COMMENTS

On May 14th MBC members enjoyed a great time at the "Seven Seas on Lake Nagawicka" restaurant for our annual "Shove-Off Spree". We had an excellent turnout, and the nice weather complimented the evening. Greg Gegner was awarded a bottle of wine for being the first to launch his boat this season on April 3rd, traveling from Manitowoc to Racine Yacht Club. Thanks go to Senior Pilot Daryl Grubbs for organizing this very successful event.

The dinghy cruise on the Fox River was a lot of fun. The entire group, with members from Waukesha Cruise Fleet and Milwaukee Boat Club, totaled 27 in 12 dinghies. The 25-plus mile trip on the Fox River took us from Big Bend, to Waterford, through Tichigan Lake, and back to Big Bend. Thanks go to Dan Danowski for coordinating this event.

The "Champagne/Cold Duck" get-together on June 13th will be a great time. Last year, MBC members also enjoyed the Lakefront Air Show, which was a real bonus to the event. I hope to see you all there.

Our Captains and First Mates breakfasts/ lunches have been well attended this year. The next breakfast will be on June 14th, 9:00 A.M., at Johnny V's and will be the last morning/noon get-together until September. We thank Donna Danowski for coordinating these get-togethers.

The LMYA Rendezvous in Sheboygan (June 18th-20th) has always been well attended by MBC members. If you don't want to take your boat to Sheboygan, please consider driving. Call LMYA Commodore Jim Mergener at 262-255-1934 for last minute reservations and information.
